

Loosley Row and Lacey Green Horticultural Society

DECEMBER
2022

Winter is truly with us and long lasting snow and hoar frosts made our villages magical. Now Christmas and the shortest day are behind us we can start to dream of spring! Happy Gardening 2023!

Daphne Williams

Kiftsgate rose climbing in a birch tree

A very dusty bee in a hibiscus flower

The Annual Show in September

Old fashioned sweet pea Edward Duke of York

Bee stealing nectar from a sweet pea

Luke and Denise Cottis

Luke and Denise Cottis

Luke and Denise Cottis

Winter colour

Purple sprouting Broccoli getting ready for spring

Self set sweet peas from this summer proving they can survive the snow

Caroline Bowen

Inspiration from further afield...a recent visit to Yves St Laurent Gardens - Jardin Majorelle, in Marrakech

Remember please keep sending in your photos they can be anything horticultural or wildlife based through to the environment and life in the Chilterns
horticultural.society@btconnect.com