

Loosely Row and Lacey Green Horticultural Society

APRIL
2021

Snow, frosts, wind and no rain welcome to April. The sun has felt so warm over the last few days perfect for getting those seeds and plants growing. With the Bank Holiday fast approaching, it's the perfect time to take a photograph and send it in to horticultural.society@btconnect.com Happy gardening!!!

Beautiful bright yellow Celandine

Blackthorn blossom near Lodge Hill

Wood Anemone near Lodge Hill

Grape Hyacinths

Clematis Armandii

Bluebells are ringing in the end of our springtime flowers (I have never planted any but each year new clumps appear)

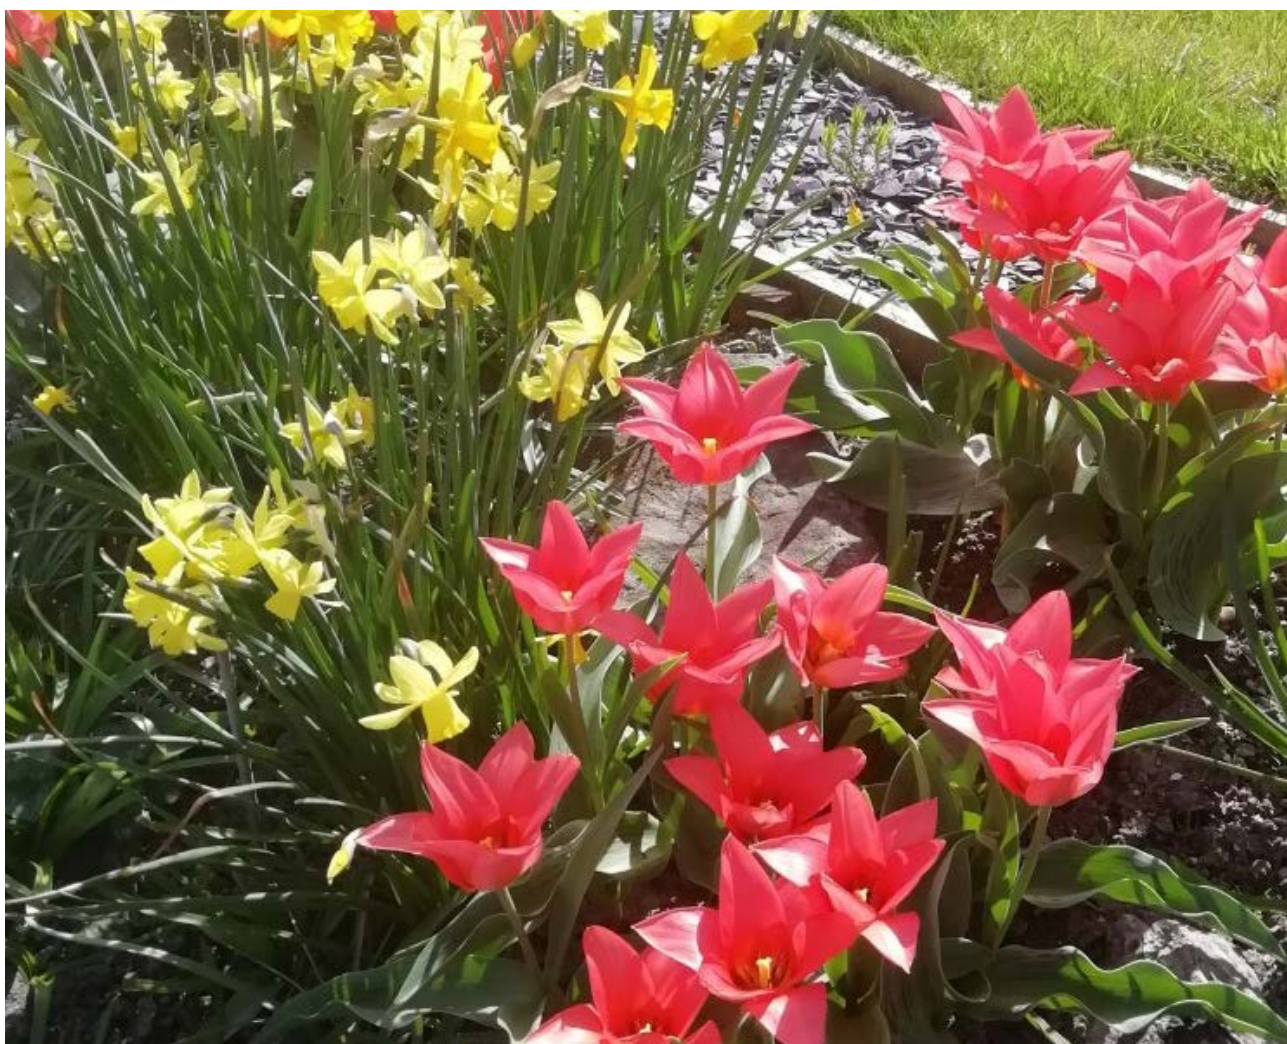

Final flourish of spring bulbs

Underplanting in now taking over from the marvellous daffodils.

Marion and Les Hazell

Ginnie Brudenell

Every year I try to grow something I haven't grown before, so here it is, this years pride and joy. Sadly the picture doesn't really show the wonderful purple markings on the leaves, makes it look quite exotic!

Michael and Betty Hardy

Two sides to April and all in the space of a couple of days

Simon and Kay Bolton

Tree Spinach

We ordered Flaming Margarita tulips, these aren't!!!!

Amazing Austrian lettuce called 'Forellenschluss' translated means 'Speckled Trout'
