

Loosely Row and Lacey Green Horticultural Society

SEPTEMBER
2020

Hooray!!!! The Autumn show happened, this was down to the amazing Horts Committee, Village Hall Committee and you for entering or just turning up on the day, so thank you. Please keep your photographs coming, September and October can be beautiful months in the garden send them to horticultural.society@btconnect.com Happy gardening!!!

Getting the tables laid out the night before in the new one way system

1st, 2nd and 3rd stickers laid out

Everything ready for a hopefully busy Saturday!!

Behind these masks two very friendly people greeted you on the day

Marcia the welder!!!

The Horts team greeted you all PPE'd up and laid out your entries in the hall

All funds from the May plant sale and donations of food and money on the day went to the One Can Trust

The hall slowly filling up

Judging in the domestic section under way

The judges for the flower sections about to start

Michael doing the stats

Some of the vegetable winners

Simon Bolton 5 chillis

Simon Bolton 2 leeks

Geoff Nash's carrots - overall winner of the horticultural exhibits

Alison Shreeve collection of 5 vegetables

Stephen Petch 2 vegetables not listed

Simon Bolton 3 beetroot

Alison Shreeve 10 small tomatoes

Some of the fruit winners

Denise Cottis 4 pears

Alison Shreeve dish of fruit

Patricia Johnstone's dessert apples winner of the fruit exhibits

Beth Downing Junior 4 apples culinary

Alison Shreeve 4 apples culinary

Alison Shreeve collection of fruit

Great fruit entries

Some of the domestic winners

Two family firsts for Sausage Taleggio Brioche Roll, mum Liz Patient winning adults section and son Harry winning the junior section. Both entries also won best domestic exhibits

Not to be out done, sister Poppy Patient and mum Liz with the cake category

The domestic judge was impressed by the standard from both adults and juniors

A good number of entries in the jam, chutney, jelly and marmalade sections

Some of the flower winners

Elizabeth Petch 5 annuals

David Lawrence cluster of roses

Alison Shreeve St Clements overall winner of the flower exhibits

Leigh Axe best rose exhibit

Nigel Rolfe 3 pompon dahlias

Molly Underwood miniature garden in a seed tray

Examining the domestic section, "Have I won?"

Great to see so many faces, albeit behind a face mask

Hall swept and Laura cleaning the last table, the 2020 Autumn show went ahead, thank you everyone stay safe

---

Remember send in photos of your garden to horticultural.society@btconnect.com